One day last week Mrs. Aleck Meredith of Green Ridge who recently resided in Sedalia had occasion to move a water barrel in her yard and in doing so felt something heavy attached to her apron. On looking down she was horrified to find a medium sized rattlesnake attached thereon and striking at it. She had presence of mind enough to try and flip her apron so as to throw the snake away from her, but didn't succeed, and then tried to untie the string of her apron which instead of untieing got iuto a knot. Luckily she was able to break the apron string and throw apron and snake away. She then caught up a stick or some handy weapon and succeeded in killing the venomous reptile.

THE DALTONS AGAIN.

Causes the People of Vinita to Be on Their Guard.

The populace of the little town of Vinita, I. T., were considerably excited yesterday when news was received from Big Cabin eight miles south of there, that the Dalton bandits were last seen moving in that direction. It was rumored that nine residents of Sedalia and is thought to masked men rode up to a farm house have been not less than ninety years about three miles from Big Cabin, and enquired the road to Vinita. A most delightful party was given in honor of Miss Ida Franklin, a charm-outlaws meant business and intended to raid the bank.

Up until about three or four days ago the outlaws have been camped six or eight miles east of Pryor creek stagentlemen were present: Misses Eva tion and their last move has casued and Ada Mitchum, Mattie Red and the people in that part of the country Sudie Edwards. Messrs. Joe Tuttle, to guess a great deal as to their intentions. Word was also sent to Adair to the effect that their band now numbers twenty-six members, sixteen having joined the gang recently. They are very bold and almost daily send some one to a trading post to purchase boldness and during deviltry, no one mittee shall map out the work. Major appears to possess bravery enough to
